

§ 305-2.19. Variance procedures.

A variance to the well regulations may be granted by a vote of the Board at a regularly scheduled meeting upon receipt and review of written application/request for such variance and payment of the required fee. However, variances to side lot setback and distance to an adjacent well not on the applicant's property will require a full hearing with abutter notification.