

§ 305-2.3. Sanitary performance.

The well contractor shall observe sanitary measures and precautions in the performance of well development work in order to prevent pollution or contamination of the well. Use of water from streams, swamps or abandoned wells for drilling shall be prohibited.